

Choice 2015

You can stay healthy
With a disciplined life style
Eating carefully and being lively
Monitoring vital parameters without fail.

You can be very lazy
With a careless life style
Living to eat thoroughly
No idea of vital parameters as they fail.

You can chat, chat and chat
With interests in gossip and all the rot
No enthusiasm to learn that's good and correct
And full focus being on the WhatsApp, what?

You can read, read and read
Having hunger for the knowledge, not food
Enthusiasm to learn something new and good
Being aware of what's happening around.

You are wealthy and helping the needy
Sharing your little to those who are in pain
Not just the money but your time heartily
Voluntarily and not for any tax bargain.

You are wealthy, but only greedy
More profits and you don't see others pains
For you time is money, only money
And little you give is only for tax gains.

You are blind to the world problems
Whether they are here or faraway
And see no need for any contributions
As the problem is not felt locally.

You understand the world problems
Doesn't matter here or faraway
And care to do your bit of contributions
Not waiting for them show up locally.

You take the bull by horn and barge
Not running away from tough situations
Solving anything with courage
Not that you have solutions for everything.

You are beating around at large
Shying away from difficult situations
Avoiding anything that needs courage
And have excuses for not doing anything.

You are sad and never being content
Always focusing on what you don't have
Being negative of the situations or future
And nobody like your pessimism.

You are happy and content from heart
Being practical of what you have or don't have Very positive to situations you can't control
And nobody can stop your optimism.

The choice is yours, not of others
To choose the green over red cards
To carve out a life that's fully yours
To be remembered for generations.

Never to be a follower of the herd
With a practice and clear voice that's heard
Inspiring with the thoughts that you breed
For a brilliant future and a wonderful world.

Let's kick-off the New Year with a choice
That's right and all of us in one voice
We are here making the right noise
To have and spread only the joys.

Wishing you a Very Happy, Prosperous and Healthy New Year 2015
