

DREAM 2011

Dream, Dream, Dream

With the power only you can imagine
To create a world full of sun shine
Filled with happiness, that is genuine
Full of love & affection, which is divine.

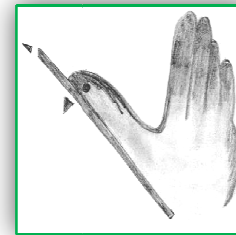

Scream, Scream, Scream

To get the evil, hell out of here
What may come, we have no fear
Positive thinking is our sphere
That we stand by the values, it's very clear.

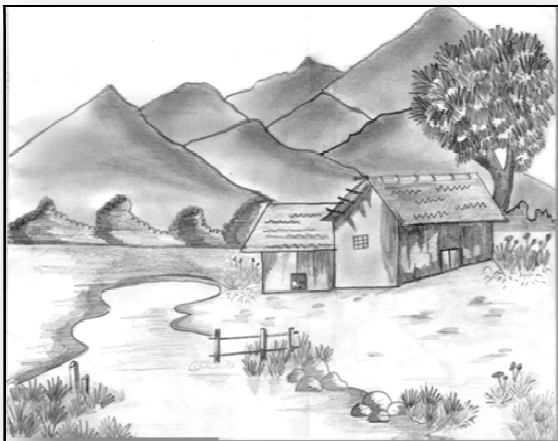

Team, Team, Team

Extend to the needy, a helping hand
Togetherness is, what will stand
For the community, to make it grand
Show the unity, bringing welfare to our land.

Beam, Beam, Beam

The spirit of faith & honesty
The warmth in the dignity
That the possibilities are infinity
To serve, with a smile, the humanity.

Forget the past, filled with –
Spams and Scams
Blasts and Leaks
Violent volcanoes
Gliding glaciers ...

Dream for the future, hoping for –
Sensible & sustainable growth
Safer home, henceforth
Global harmony, just not wealth
Livable environment for all on Earth.

Wishing All Your Dreams Come True in Years to Come,
Full of Happiness & Togetherness
