

Hope 2012

World is full of negativity
The mind is filled with fear and uncertainty
Seeing the daily cruelty
Doubtful of life with peace and prosperity.

For many, the day is filled with hunger
And many more are in danger
Being wiped-off of the trigger
Frustratingly, bringing all the anger.

*That's when you think of positiveness
You and your knowledge's usefulness
As a community of collectiveness
Initiating actions with firmness.*

*Take the baby steps with full determination
Without any worry or hesitation
Not expecting any appreciation
Or waiting for anybody's confirmation.*

Create the islands of excellence
For one to see and feel in resonance
Spreading like a good fragrance
For all of us to achieve the eminence.

Let not the negativity bog you down
Rise high with positivity of your own
No, No... we are not going to frown
Hope, Hope & Hope... is what we will wear as the crown.

Hoping 2012 and beyond will bring you lots of courage, joy, happiness & prosperity.
