

Shock of Life

*Life is confusing
Days are dragging
Mind goes numbing
Heart is paining.*

*That's how one feels after a shock
When the unexpected is stuck
In a matter of short time
Bringing difficulties dozen a dime.*

*Hope is, we all are after Happiness is what we crave for
Health is what we desire
And expecting peace for sure.*

*In an otherwise steady sail
We bump into thunders once a while
But some are shockingly rude
Reminding us we are nobody dude.*

*The impact will be very deep
Mentally hitting us really bad
It will be a struggle, composure to keep Continuing with whatever left good.*

*Calamities will hit us in all sizes
Near us or somewhere at a distance
But we feel the effect of it always
With varying degree of significance.*

*Praying to give us all the strength
To deal with the shocks and struggles
Hoping for a future filled with health,
Happiness, Peace and all the giggles.*

Wishing You All A Very Happy, Prosperous, Peaceful and Healthy New Year 2016
