

Tribute to Vijaya

Vijaya, you are not just mother/wife
But our whole hearted life
For the better, you made our life full
With you, no moment was ever dull.

Vijaya, you have a nature to be immensely helpful
With passion you connect for helping
With sincerity and being thoughtful
You lend a helping hand, that's fulfilling.

Vijaya, your love to the family is unquestionable
The care you show is appreciable
The planning you do is unimaginable
The perfection you achieve is commendable.

Vijaya, you have the eye for the detail
And the flair to select the best
With logic, anyone, you can nail
Working with you is a skill test.

Vijaya, you are a solid fighter
You fight even in tough situations
With strong mind, you are a crusader
You control, reading right, the conditions.

Vijaya, you went through very challenging times
With many ups and downs in your health
Facing several procedures and operations
Bearing all that, keeping your pain in stealth.

Vijaya, your loss is very unbearable
A void that's unimaginable, while passing days
Living with memories, that are unforgettable
And moving on with your thoughts always.

Vijaya, it's our promise to you
To fulfil all your wishes and dreams
All what you told and untold too
In the coming months and years.

Vijaya, we pray for your peace
Wherever you are in the universe
And pray for our strength and courage
For all that we need to go on to achieve.

With Love, Lots of Love
Hima and Girish
